CITY ATTORNEY OPINES LA JOLLA COMMUNITY PLANNING ASSOCIATION ELECTION IS VALID

DATE AND TIME: Wednesday, April 4 at Noon

LOCATION: La Jolla Recreation Center
615 Prospect Street (Cross Street is Draper)
La Jolla

San Diego City Attorney Michael Aguirre will brief the news media regarding a City Attorney opinion that validates the recent annual election of new officers to the La Jolla Community Planning Association (LJCPA), which was held on March 1, 2007.

The City Attorney's opinion challenges a recent letter from Jim Waring, Deputy Chief Operating Officer for the City's Land Use and Economic Development Department, threatening the group with decertification if new elections are not conducted because the City Council has yet to ratify their new bylaws. The City Attorney's opinion, however, states that the election was conducted in substantial compliance with all applicable laws and policies, regardless if the election was conducted under the old or new bylaws.
